

JOB AND RESUME NOTEBOOKS

Job shopping, or just want to test the waters? Seeking qualified professionals to fill a position at your organization? This is the place to link up with a network of EE practitioners. Job and Resume Notebooks are loose-leaf notebooks for position announcements and resumes. Local contact information will be included to facilitate meetings of job seekers and those with job offerings.

To have your resume or job listed, drop it off at the Conference Registration Desk when you arrive at the NAAEE meeting in Boston. If you can't attend the conference, mail your submission, no later than June 30, 2002. Complete & Return Form on Reverse.

AUTHOR'S CORNER

Meet the people behind the words at this author and book expo, including publications from across the spectrum of EE: resource management, biodiversity, social issues, education reform . . .

Know of an author we should all meet? Let us know, and we'll invite them to take part in our Author's Corner this year. To recommend someone, or sign yourself up for the Author's Corner, please fill out the form and return it by June 30, 2002.

BOSTON TEE PARTY AUCTION

Just as our forefathers did, get ready to give a rebel yell and toss some "green" TEE into Boston Harbor! The worthy cause? The NAAEE Conference Scholarship Fund--steeped in annual NAAEE Auction tradition! Loosen your patriotic purse strings and ransack your sugar bowl to give not one lump, but two!! Pack a crate and send us some real Red Zinger donations! Some TEE-rific items from Little Rock included: creative items made from pre- and postconsumer recycled materials, handcrafts from social cooperatives that promote fair trade, and community sustainability artistic gifts made by our own members from across the world, eco-tours and environmentally friendly services & products, awesome Affiliate and NAAEE Staff baskets with fun nature themes, the coveted Wisconsin Cheese Hat! (where's the Moose?!)

There's a NAAEE Conference Auction that's just your cup of TEE:

- 1. E-bay: Sip a TEE cup a day on E-bay! Visit NAAEE's charity site and place your E-bay bid!
- 2. Silent Auction: A taxing choice between many wonderful items. Don't be reading your TEE leaves too long...some despot will up your bid and make off with the whole teapot!
- 3. Live: This is where a live auctioneer, such as Paul Revere, brings the TEE kettle to a rolling boil! The greenbacks are coming! Bid on the best of the best, a lively cuppa! So be an Auction darjeeling...and bid BIG in Boston! Let NAAEE's Bean Town bean counters count on us for a successful 2002 Auction.

COMPLETE & RETURN FORM ON REVERSE.

SHARE FAIR

Exhibit information and materials about your non-profit organization, programs and facilities with posters, photos, etc. This is bare-bones, no fancy accoutrements to detract from your table-top display, just an energy conserving table and chairs - no decorations, no electricity. To take advantage of the Share Fair, send US $20 entrance fee and the form by June 30, 2002. Make check payable to NAAEE.

EXHIBIT FAIR

You are invited to participate in the Exhibit Fair at this year's NAAEE annual conference. We are anticipating over 1,000 environmental educators in Boston, all seeking new ideas, contacts, and information that will provide them with exciting resources to take home. The conference's events promise you ample opportunity to showcase your exhibit. You can be a part of this inspiring process by reserving your exhibitor space today!

Daily coffee breaks will be held in the Exhibit Fair to foster more opportunities for conference participants to visit exhibits. Special activities are being planned to promote Exhibit Fair attendance.

Don't wait! Spaces are very limited this year. We encourage early reservations. Complete and submit the form. NAAEE and the Boston TEE Party await your presence with genuine New England hospitality.
