The Environmental Education Collection — A Review of Resources for Educators Volume 3 is the result of a collaborative effort among the National Project for Excellence in Environmental Education, The World Wildlife Fund, and the North American Association for Environmental Education. This document could not have been produced without the support and leadership provided by Judy Braus, Director of Environmental Education and Betty Olivolo, Senior Environmental Education Specialist of the World Wildlife Fund and Ed McCrea, Executive Director of the North American Association for Environmental Education.

Special thanks to the teachers, curriculum developers, educational administrators, environmental education specialists, business and industry representatives, and environmental scientists who took time from their busy schedules to review the curriculum materials. We would also like to express our gratitude to Lori Mann, Environmental Education Consultant and David Starnes, Training, International and Affiliates Coordinator at NAAEE for hosting review sessions.

This project has been funded by the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Environmental Education Division.

The contents of this document do not necessarily reflect the views and policies of EPA nor does mention of trade names or commercial products constitute endorsement or recommendation for use.

Additional funding and support for this project has been received from the Environmental Education and Training Partnership (EETAP), the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, World Wildlife Fund, the National Environmental Education and Training Foundation, and Northern Illinois University.
